

I spent forty years in broadcasting...radio and television. Now in retirement I am saddened by your one-sided desperate attempt to sway the votes of Americans. The tactics, though obviously against the grain of American Democracy, seem similar to those used in college student body elections. Grow up and understand the responsibility you have as a licensee under the FCC.